BRYANITES IN THE PHILIPPINES. On February 25, 1899, Aguinaldo's secretary of the interior, issued a proclamation from which the following is an extract:

You will so dispose that at 8 o'clock ot night the individuals of the territorial militia at your orders will be found united in all the streets of San Pedro, armed with their bolos, revolvers and guns, and ammunition, i convenient. Phipino families only will be respected. They should not be mofested, but all other individuals of whatever race they may be, will be exterminated without any compassio after the extermination of the army of occupation."

PERLIC LANDS.

The total sales of government land during the year ended June 30, 1960. were 13.452.887 acres, an increase of over 4,000,000 from the fiscal year of 1999, and the cash receipts of the land office were $4,379.758, the largest for serson!

Duringthe year 61.270 people took up original homestead entries, amounting go 6,478,109 acres: 5,478 people took up desert lands, amounting to 588,155 acree. while four persons filed timber claims. for 640 acres, making a total of 64,753 new settlers upon unoccupied land, who took up 2,002,204 acres, or an average of 140 scree each. For a year or so prospercons as 1900 this seems a remarkable record. People usually emigrate when they are hard up or have failed to make a living at their former homes, but tast year there was a larger exodus from the old states to the new than for many years before.
